

DIVISION CHAIR- GOVERNMENT RELATIONS ROCHESTER, MN

What if your career could change your life?

Perhaps you imagine being part of a team where your colleagues inspire you to stretch and grow beyond your boundaries. Maybe you are looking for a purpose in life that gives you an opportunity to be part of a lasting legacy. Mayo Clinic has a legacy of inspiring hope and contributing to health and well-being by providing the best care to every patient through integrated clinical practice, education and research. You'll discover a culture of teamwork, professionalism and mutual respect – and most importantly, a life-changing career.

The Division Chair - Government Relations will shape and implement Mayo Clinic's proactive government relations strategy within the framework of the priorities of Mayo Clinic's strategic plan. This position oversees the development and implementation of plans to effectively advocate for Mayo Clinic's position and participation in the healthcare policy arena. The Chair will identify opportunities to leverage state and federal funds and/or policies to support organizational goals. The chair advises Mayo Clinic leadership in the development of public policy positions, coordinates Mayo's response to public policy issues and federal government decisions, advocates for the interests of the organization and builds relationships with other entities whose interests are similar or whose functions affect it and collaborates with the team to communicate with policy makers in Congress, executive or government agencies and membership associations and groups.

Qualified candidates hold a Master's degree in public policy or a related field and have at least 10 years of relevant experience working with government and public policy agencies or equivalent. Seven years of supervisory experience, knowledge of the political and legislative processes, along with established relationships in healthcare is important.

Learn and grow among the best in your field at the nation's top hospital (U.S. News & World Report, 2017-2018), ranked No. 1 in more specialties than any other care provider. At Mayo Clinic, you'll use the power of collaboration to achieve the highest standards for medical care and health improvement, working in the largest integrated, not-for-profit medical group practice in the world with over 60,000 employees. You're invited to contribute to a unique environment that brings together the best in patient care, groundbreaking research and innovative medical education. Being a part of Mayo Clinic allows for more work-life balance, competitive compensation and generous benefits, career security and the ability to manage and coordinate patient care in the most efficient ways possible.
